GOLD BELT IS SHOWING FINE GOLD VALUES

Charles Keilhofer Will Arrive Here Friday to Prepare for Enlarged Operations.

Chas. Keilhofer, accompanied by a director of the Gold Belt Divide Mining company, will arrive in Tonopah Friday morning from Los Angeles, to look over development that is going forward upon the company property which lies between the Rosetta and Gold Seam holdings.
Three men are at present employed on the Gold Belt and a three-compartment shaft has been started, which now has a depth of 15 feet. "Toby" Martin is in charge of operations, and announcement was made this morning that the scope of operations will be enlarged with the arrival of Mr. Keilhofer.
The showing on the Gold Belt is reported as being most encouraging and high assay values in gold are being secured from samples of the ore now exposed in the bottom of the shaft.

MOTOR SCHOONER IS DESERTED BY CREW

(By Associated Press.)
MARSHFIELD, May 17.—A wire less received here says the motor schooner Ozmo, waterlogged off Cape Blanco, has been abandoned by the crew of 17, who took to the boats.
The crew of the motor ship Ozmo, which struck on rocks near Port Orford early today at 10 o'clock, had not taken to boats as reported, according to a message received by radio at Bremerton. She was ten feet of water in the hold, and relief is expressed that she will be abandoned in an hour, the message said.

BRITISH CABINET TO CONFER WITH HOUSE

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, May 17.—The British cabinet has decided to defer to the wishes of the house of commons, and appoint a committee to inquire into the educational program on which the government was defeated by a narrow margin last night. Austen Chamberlain, government leader announced today.

Bakersfield Elks Bar Ku Klux Klan Members

(By Associated Press.)
BAKERSFIELD, May 17.—The Bakersfield lodge of Elks last night went on record against the Ku Klux Klan, which was branded in resolutions adopted, as "un-American" and "not in harmony with the principles of the constitution of the United States," James Egan, secretary of the lodge announced today.

Elks Initiate Three Candidates Into Order

At a meeting of the Elks held last night three new candidates were admitted as members of the herd. Joseph T. Murphy, the well known attorney; Shelton McClain, member of the fire department, and Joe Donohue, were initiated into the mysteries of the order. The exercises were followed by light refreshments.

Mother J. W. Mashburn Dies at Sedalia, Mo.

J. W. Mashburn received a wire yesterday informing him of the death of his mother, Mrs. J. A. Mashburn, at Sedalia, Mo. The body will be taken to Parsons, Kas. and buried in the family plot beside that of the husband.

PERSONAL

W. J. HOWARD, of Blair Junction, is a visitor to Tonopah.

LETSON BALLEET, mining engineer, left this morning on a visit to Carrara.

MRS. J. A. CASEY, manager of the Unique store, is back from a visit of two days in Goldfield.

CHAS. DeFLON, well known attorney, is expected to return from Los Angeles tonight or tomorrow morning.

E. W. BLAIR and family left this morning by auto for Carrara, where they will look over the property of the American Carrara Mining company.

A. P. McGRATH, Pacific coast manager of the Sullivan Machinery Co., was an arrival in Tonopah this morning and will spend a couple of days looking after business interests.

E. L. TURNBAUGH, popular traveling agent of the traffic department of the Southern Pacific company, left this morning for Goldfield to call upon the business interests.

FRANK PIERSON, accompanied by his mother, who has been in San Francisco for the last two years, arrived in Tonopah this morning, and will resume his former position with J. C. Piercy, the well known droght.

H. J. MURRISH, of Lovelock, district attorney of Pershing county, accompanied by his wife and her two sisters, the Misses Keith, the latter of Elko, spent last night in Tonopah. They were on their way to Los Angeles, where they will enjoy a vacation.

J. F. SCHOLTZ, one of the old time residents of Bellehelen, is a visitor to Tonopah. Mr. Scholtz states that there is considerable activity in the Bellehelen district, and he predicts considerable excitement will take place in that camp before the summer has drawn to a close.

DR. L. M. BRUNER and wife, of Long Beach, left this morning for home, after a short visit here. They made the drive from Long Beach to Tonopah in 24 hours and were forced out of their way a considerable distance through a signpost pointing in the wrong direction on Westward pass.

Court Case Still Drags Slowly Before Averill

The case of Simi against Fabbri, which has been on trial in the district court since last Friday morning, and which involves the sum of $328, is still dragging slowly along, and indications this afternoon were that it would not be concluded before tonight, when a session of court will be held. Court, jurors, attorneys and attorneys are showing the effects of the dryness and tediousness of the proceedings.

The Bonanza is $1 per month delivered at your door. Read the news while it is fresh, and don't wait for a rebash.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONS MEET JUNE 10

National Assembly Will Meet in Fifteenth Annual Session at San Francisco.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—The National Assembly of Civil Service Commissions will meet in their fifteenth annual convention in San Francisco June 6-10. Delegates representing national, state, county and civil service commissions of the United States and Canada are expected by President David L. Reese of Ventura, Cal., to attend.

Mr. Reese, who is president of the Civil Service Commission of California, said most of the delegates would come by way of Los Angeles, and be guests of Los Angeles county and city civil service commissions June 5.

The convention is expected to organize at an afternoon session June 6 in San Francisco, and in the evening a dinner will be given at which Gov. William D. Stephens of California and Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco will speak in welcome.

Standardization examination tests will be discussed June 7 by Dr. L. L. Thurstone, Carnegie Institute of Technology, William Gordon Rise of the New York civil service commission, Dr. Lewis M. Terman of Stanford University and E. A. Walcott, San Francisco civil service commissioner. "Classification" will be another topic.

Efficiency records, administration and recruiting and public service will be subjects of addresses June 8 and 9.

Delegates will be guests of the California State Harbor commission on a bay excursion June 10, after which the Oakland civil service commission will entertain them at luncheon.

TWO RAIDS BRING AS MANY ARRESTS

Mrs. May "Curley" Parker, who conducts a rooming house on Main street, was arrested last night when a raid was made on her place by Chief of Police O. H. Smith and Officers John Hill and Chester Carroll. An opium layout was seized, as well as what is believed to be a quantity of narcotics and a bottle of China gin. Mrs. Parker was taken to the justice court and released upon a cash bond in the sum of $500.

John Terkla, who conducts a soft drink emporium on Main street, was arrested following a raid on his rooms in the stone building back of the Butler theater. The officers claim to have seized 20 gallons of moonshine. Terkla was taken to jail, bond being refused last night.

Gordon Hussey Visiting With Old Time Friends

Gordon Hussey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hussey, arrived last night by auto from Bakersfield, where he is associated with the Quakerline Oil company. Mr. Hussey states that the sign board leading from the toll house on Westward pass has been turned the wrong way and that the arrow caused many motorists to go in the wrong direction. This matter should be looked after in order to keep travelers from going in the wrong direction. Many complaints have been made regarding this matter of late. Mr. Hussey will visit a short time with his father and mother and then proceed to Austin.

Parents and Teachers Association Has Session

A well attended meeting of the Tonopah Parents and Teachers association was held last night at the high school when matters were discussed relative to providing more ample accommodations. A committee, consisting of Mrs. Hugh H. Brown, Mrs. J. J. McQuillan and Mrs. Arthur Spiers, was appointed to look into the matter and report back at a later date.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Roy Q. McDonald, and Mrs. Johnson was elected vice-president. It was voted that the regular meeting night should be the first Tuesday night of each month. Dues were established at $1 yearly.

Washington Mineralogist To Visit This District

W. F. Foshag, assistant curator of the department of mineralogy at Washington, will arrive here tomorrow morning to spend a few days looking over the district. Mr. Foshag has been at Las Vegas and expects to remain in Tonopah and the surrounding districts for several days.

AMUSEMENTS

LOTTIE PICKFORD AT THE BUTLER TODAY

"They Shall Pay," presents Lottie Pickford, the charming sister of Mary, at the Butler today, in the role of a fearless girl who, actuated by her love for her father, makes each of his enemies pay, and pay in full. Because they had double-crossed her father, sent him to jail and stolen her inheritance, three men were her sworn enemies, and she plotted a revenge that was partially frustrated by her own heart, when she fell in love with one of the three. Miss Pickford displays great versatility in a role that runs the gamut of emotions, and is given splendid support by an excellent cast.

Added to the program: a two-reel Sunshine comedy, "Business Is Business."

Tomorrow, Anne Forest and David Powell, in a charming comedy-drama "Love's Boomerang," and the latest Pathe News.

The Bonanza is not afraid of lures print all the news. Better subscribe now and keep posted on the happenings of the day, both locally and by wire. $1 a month.

CHAMPION GROWER OF WHISKERS CARSONITE

(By Associated Press.)
SACRAMENTO, May 17.—Claims of J. J. Tanner, Brighton, Mich., to the world's long-whiskered championship are disputed by Jack Wilcox of Carson, Nev., who has been growing a beard since December 31, 1881, when he threw away his razor, because it was dull, and swore he never would shave again. His beard is 11 feet 3 inches long, but before it was combed and washed recently it was 14 feet long. Tanner's beard has been reported as 9 feet long.

The county surveyor at Carson recently measured the Wilcox beard when the latter was entered in the long-whiskered contest being conducted by the Days of '49 Celebration here May 23-28. Unless someone comes along with a longer beard, Wilcox will receive a gold medal, $50 a day and expenses while in Sacramento attending the celebration.

Great Mine on Fire.

(By Associated Press.)
TUSCON, May 17.—Telegraphic reports received here at 1 p. m. by the Southern Pacific of Mexico, declared the Pajo mine, near Rosario, Sinaloa, is in flames, and that the bodies of four of the dead had been removed. The Pajo is one of the oldest and largest mines in Mexico.
